Funeral director makes toy appeal

A FUNERAL director is hoping to spread some festive cheer.

Co-Op Funeralcare, in Gale Street, Dagenham, has launched its annual toy appeal.

Last year, generous locals donated hundreds of toys, which were handed over to children affected by domestic on Christmas morning.

Lorraine Gunner said the toys made such a difference to the children.

She said: "Most of them had been forced to flee their home with their mother after suffering from domestic violence.

"When they leave, all they have are the clothes on their back, so it was nice to give them something to replace what they've left behind."

If you would like to donate some toys for this year's campaign, you can drop them off at either branch before Friday, December 17.

ARMED ROBBER JAILED

A BARKING man has been jailed for his part in an armed robbery at a fast food restaurant.

Christian Sankar, 25, of St Marys, was sentenced at Blackfriars Crown Court on Monday to nine years' imprisonment having previously pleading guilty to conspiracy to commit robbery and possession of a firearm.

He was one of three men involved in the robbery at the McDonald's restaurant in Finchley Road, in Hampstead, in February.

Shejja Rehman, 21, of St Paul's Avenue, Slough, was jailed for eight-and-a-half years for the armed robbery having pleaded guilty to conspiracy to commit robbery and possession of a firearm.

Andrew Nkomo, 22, of Lithos Road, Hampstead, was sentenced to 11 years imprisonment for the armed robbery having been found guilty at Blackfriars' Crown Court in early September.

A fourth person, Emily Cahill, 18, of Beaufort Park, Golders Green, was sentenced to 40 months' imprisonment having pleaded guilty to conspiracy to commit robbery and possession of a firearm.

Sankar, Nkomo and Rehman casually walked into the McDonald's restaurant armed with a sawn-off shotgun at 12.30am on Monday, February 14.

Cahill, who was Nkomo's girlfriend, was already sitting in the restaurant using an innocent member of the public as cover while she acted as a lookout.

Once inside Rehman gave the shotgun to Sankar, who loaded it in front of the terrified staff. They walked through the kitchen area to find the manager and then threatened her with the gun before forcing her through to the back office where she was made to open the safe so they could load £2,000 in cash into a rucksack.

Throughout Cahill sat with the innocent member of the public making conversation and acting as though she was not involved.

As the three men were about to leave they realised they had forgotten the shotgun. The CCTV shows Nkomo going back to get it from one of the kitchen units before the three men leave the restaurant. Cahill walks out a short time later. All were arrested in March and later charged.

DC Jim Laird, of the MPS Flying Squad based at Finchley, said: "We are pleased with the sentences the defendants have received. They were willing to use extreme acts of violence against the staff.

"Had they not been arrested they would have continued committing violent armed robberies."

Competition

WIN! A falconry experience

HAVING trouble finding the perfect gift for Christmas, then why not send your nearest and dearest on a special falconry experience day.

PL Falconry and Essex Falconry Days have teamed up with the Yellow Advertiser to give away five experience days to our readers.

The long established businesses have a team of professional falconers who offer an impressive range of exciting falconry experiences which allow both adults and children to handle and fly a variety of birds of prey.

There are a range of experiences to suit a variety of budgets, which are all ideal for a variety of special occasions, from Christmas presents to birthday gifts. What's more, they are all set in the grounds of one of the country's oldest Norman castles here in Essex.

They include a one hour experience for £25, which gives you a chance to handle and fly one of its magnificent birds of prey, and a half day experience, for £55, during which you can fly a variety of birds of prey including hawks, falcons and owls, and learn more about their behaviour in the wild.

A full day experience, which costs £95, includes a talk on the history of falconry, a chance to learn how to tie a falconers knot, make some of the leather equipment and weigh the birds, a pub lunch, and the chance to fly a variety of birds including Harris Hawks, Owls, and a Hooded Vulture, and see flying demonstrations of its Falcons.

They also offer two hour Owl Encounters for £45, Hunting

Experience Days with Harris Hawks and ferrets for £150, and Archery Experiences for just £25 for one hour and £45 for two hours.

Non-participating guests can also enjoy the experiences for a smaller fee.

For further information about PL Falconry, which also offers training courses for those who want to own and train birds of prey, as well as stag events, children's parties, school visits and corporate days, call Steve Younge on 01787 249691 or 07960 879600, or visit www.plfalconry.co.uk or www.essexfalconrydays.co.uk

For your chance to win one of five falconry day experiences, just answer the following question.

Q: How much does a full day experience cost?

A: £95

B: £100

C: £105

To enter the competition, telephone your answer – A, B or C – to 0901 307 1672 along with your name, address and telephone number. Alternatively text YAFY (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name and full address to 63333.

Calls cost 50p from a BT landline. Calls from other networks may vary and from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates. If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, please text EXIT at the end of your message.

Lines close on Thursday, December 15, 2010. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but you may still be charged.

CHARITY: Participants dress up for the fun run.

Santas on the run

A WAVE of red filled the streets as people dressed as Father Christmas joined in a sponsored charity Santathon run.

Around 155 children and adults dressed as Santa and some pet dogs showed their festive spirit and took part in the 5km run to raise money for Saint Francis Hospice on Sunday.

The runners were set on their way from Dagenham and Redbridge Football Club by the Mayor of Barking and Dagenham, Milton McKenzie MBE.

It is hoped their efforts have raised around £10,000 for Saint Francis Hospice.

The money will go towards the charity's work providing care and support, free of charge, to people affected by cancer, dementia, renal failure and other life-limiting illness.

Among the running Santas were teachers and staff from Harold Wood Primary School including headteacher Alison Dowding.

School business manager, Lorraine Retigan, said: "It was a lovely event, everybody enjoyed it and we were pleased to support a worthwhile cause. The family of one of our teachers has benefited from the care provided by Saint Francis Hospice so we wanted to give something back to the charity."

Trish Evans and family members Paul and Jamie Howe, from Harold Hill, ran in memory of her father-in-law David, who died in September after battling cancer.

Trish said: "The Santathon was great fun, I really enjoyed it. When David got ill, everybody from the day hospice was so amazing and then when he became an inpatient it was just the same. The medical team and staff were absolutely unbelievable and that's why we wanted to give something back."

Members of Dagenham 88 Runners took part including Jacqueline Frewin, who wanted to run last year, but was on holiday so was pleased to join in this year.

Event organiser Elizabeth Palfreman said: "It was great to see so many Santas young and old come together for the Santathon whether running in memory of someone who has received our care or to support the charity."

"Thank you to everyone who supported Saint Francis Hospice, especially Dagenham and Redbridge Football Club for hosting the event."

If you would like to find out about the day of Saint Francis Hospice or how you can support the charity visit www.sfh.org.uk or call 01708 753319.

New bereavement service

PEOPLE who suffer the death of a loved one can make use of a new bereavement service, which shortens and simplifies the death registration procedure.

Havering Council has launched the Just Once procedure, which allows families to report deaths to the authority who, in turn, tell other agencies about the passing.

For more information, call 01708 433481.

Man jailed for attempted robbery with fake gun

A MAN who tried to rob a fast food outlet with a fake gun has been jailed.

Derek Smith, 33, of Cornflower Way, Harold Hill, attempted the hold-up on June 18 at McDonald's, Bryant Avenue, Harold Hill.

Smith was sentenced to two years in jail at the Old Bailey on Monday, November 21, after pleading guilty to attempted robbery and possession of an imitation firearm.

Mortality rates above average

By Peter Henn

PATIENTS are more likely to die at Queen's Hospital, Romford and King George Hospital, Goodmayes, than at the average hospital, a report has stated.

The survey, by health research firm Dr Foster, says patients at hospitals run by Barking, Havering & Redbridge NHS Hospitals Trust (BHR) have a below average chance of surviving their stay.

More than 37 per cent of people admitted with broken hips were not treated within the first two days of their stay – 7.1 per cent above the national average. However, it was not all bad news for the trust, as the report found that the survival rate within 30 days of discharge was four per cent above the national average.

It was also praised for its work with expectant mothers who suffered trauma in childbirth.

BHR's chief executive, Averil

Dongworth, said while pleased to have got some praise, she queried Dr Foster's data.

She said: "The mortality rate published by Dr Foster is at odds with the Department of Health's recent hospital mortality indicators which showed that the Trust had better than average death rates."

The trust has been carrying out data analysis with Dr Foster, which believes the hospital may have wrongly coded some deaths.

'Firemen' guilty of armed raids

By Peter Henn

A GANG of men, including a former police officer, have been found guilty of posing as firemen and carrying out armed raids across Ilford and east London.

The men raided premises including JD Sports, Eastern Avenue, Ilford; Barclays Bank, Upminster Road South, Rainham; McDonalds, Seven Kings; Martins, Woodward Road, Dagenham; Tesco Express, Manor Way, Chigwell, and McDonalds, Bryant Avenue, Harold Hill in 2010.

Their modus operandi was to dress up as firemen, visit premises and then tell them alarms needed to be checked. Once they were inside, they pulled out guns and forced staff to hand over cash.

Former Met officer Gary Griffiths, 42, from Babbington Road, Dagenham; Jason Stacey, 38, from Chitty's Lane, Dagenham; Joshua McEvilly, 29, of Hare Hall Lane, Gidea Park; Ben Garforth, 20, of Chadwell Heath Lane, Dagenham; Frank Nesbitt, 20, of Mildmay Road, Romford; Peter Henderson, 29, of Lymington Road, Dagenham; and Darren Lloyd, 36, of Pettits Road, Dagenham, were convicted last Thursday after being found guilty of a series of conspiracy to rob charges.

The group's 25 raids came to an end on December 13 last year.

Two days before they had tried to carry out a robbery at Iceland, Chapel Street, Islington, but they left after the manager became suspicious.

The manager then contacted the Fire Brigade, an e-mail was circulated – and firefighter Russell Williams, 39, from Cheshunt, Hertfordshire, tipped off Griffiths.

Williams was found guilty of assisting an offender at the Old Bailey on December 1.

However, on the 13th, Stacey, Griffiths and Lloyd tried to enter the Co-op in Gale Street, Dagenham but, after discovering it was closed, they drove off.

They then entered Harvey's Food and Wine in Goodmayes Lane, Dagenham, armed with handguns and stole the till – but the police were on their trail.

Officers chased after the men, and they were arrested, and their accomplices were also caught by Flying Squad Officers investigating the matter.

The Flying Squad's DS John Kieley said the men were 'highly organised and violent'.

The gang will be sentenced next month.

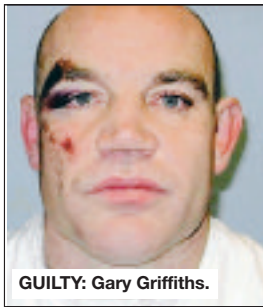

GUILTY: Ben Garforth.

GUILTY: Darren Lloyd.

GUILTY: Joshua McEvilly.

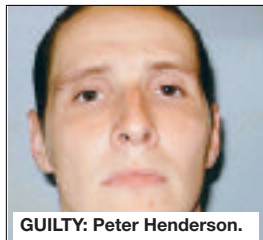

GUILTY: Gary Griffiths.

GUILTY: Frank Nesbitt.

GUILTY: Jason Stacey.

GUILTY: Peter Henderson.

CAUGHT: CCTV of one of the robberies.

SPECIAL FEATURE

in association with The National Lottery

I can't believe I forgot to do that .....

National Lottery Scratchcard survey reveals pre-Christmas planning goes out of the window when we reach the festive season

Is December the most forgetful time of the year?

Despite our best intentions and planning lists, over a quarter of us admit to missing the last post with a friend's gift or card, remembering only when it was too late to sort anything else out.

A National Lottery Scratchcards survey has found that friends top the list of those we know who miss out on that special gift, followed closely by distant relatives and work colleagues who are also regularly forgotten in those last minute shopping trips.

In the heat of the party season, we also admit that we forget things we have planned in advance to do...

35% forget to put out things like the stuffing or sauces they have bought to go with Christmas dinner or a buffet

22% forget to give people presents that they bought in advance – and maybe stored in a wardrobe or on top of a cupboard

34% don't have enough batteries to get their gifts to work

Scratchcards - The Perfect Gift!

National Lottery Scratchcards hope that their range of Christmas-themed cards can fit the bill for fun gifting that doesn't break the bank.

Costing either £1, £2 or £5 each, they can easily be given as an adult stocking filler, a secret Santa gift or popped into a Christmas card to give to those you almost forgot. Not only that, as they can be bought from retailers across the UK at any time in the run up to Christmas, they are an easy answer for that last minute present that you maybe forgot to buy and you could make someone a winner in an instant....

Happy Christmas costs £1 – perfect to give as a festive favour to glam up a dinner table. With a top prize of £5,000, players have a 1 in 4.96 chance of winning a prize.

Snow Me The Money costs £2 and prizes up to £80,000 can be won. Players have a 1 in 4.56 chance of scooping a prize.

Christmas Millionaire is a card that would go down a treat as a work secret Santa present. Costing £5 and with a 1 in 3.82 chance of the player winning any prize, you could make someone an instant millionaire with this gift.

Safe driving in winter

by Steve Ghosley

PLANNING a shopping expedition? Visiting relatives and friends over the festive season? Make sure you don't forget the most important thing: is your car and your driving up to surviving the winter weather?

In the cold, wet weather, it's even more important than ever to give your car a thorough check over - for safety as well as peace of mind.

Ensuring that your car is serviced regularly is one way to avoid all the hassle of a breakdown - not foolproof, of course, but prevention is always better than cure. Tyres should always be carefully checked as worn treads can be lethal - for you and innocent bystanders, as well as other road users. Tyre pressure, too, should be regularly monitored.

Up until recently UK motorists hadn't adopted the Continental practice of swapping tyres in the autumn for winter ones - then swapping back in the spring to summer ones. As a result of recent very cold winters however attitudes are changing with many garages now offering a 'Winter Tyre Fitting Service' where they will sell you a set of winter tyres and store your summer ones free of charge.

One of the most common causes of breakdown is battery failure. Sluggish starting is a sure sign that your car battery is getting old. As soon as starting becomes slow, it's time to think about buying a new battery, especially after a long winter.

If you're venturing to the Continent, make sure you read up on the traffic laws in the countries you're planning to visit. You could be liable for hefty on the spot fines or even time in a foreign jail if you don't.

Before setting off on a winter journey, assess the weather and if in doubt stay at home. If, however, you do set off, take time to run through the basic checks outlined above. Keep a few essentials in the car, too.

They could be a life saver!

- mobile phone (fully charged)
- shovel
- de-icer/ice scraper
- blanket
- warm clothing
- wellingtons
- torch
- hot drink
- chocolate bar

In bad weather it is only common sense to drive more carefully. This means lower speeds, allowing yourself greater distances to brake and bring the car to a halt and most importantly of all, giving fellow road users more time and space to complete their manoeuvres. Getting angry and uptight will only exacerbate a situation and increase the likelihood of an accident.

Raiders close the gap to Chieftains

Ice Hockey

ROMFORD Raiders moved to within a point of league-leading Chelmsford Chieftains following another four-point weekend of English National League action.

JJ McGrath (4) and Danny Marshall (3) both notched hat-tricks as Raiders secured an 11-1 win over the Milton Keynes Thunder on Saturday, a record-breaking 24th consecutive home victory for the gold and blue.

AJ Smith (2), Matt Turner and JJ Pitchley also tallied as former Peterborough Phantom's forward Shaun Yardley debuted for Romford after signing in midweek.

Raiders travelled to Gilling-ham on Sunday looking to avenge a 4-1 defeat at the hands of the Invicta Dynamos last month.

Juraj Huska (2), JJ McGrath, Marshall and Anthony Leone tallied for Romford in a see-saw first period that ultimately saw Raiders skate off with a 5-2 lead.

Justin Noble and Callum Best scored on the powerplay to pull Dynamos to within one, before Huska completed his hat-trick in the third period to seal an important 6-4 win for the Raiders.

Romford travel to Chelmsford for an Essex Cup date with the Chieftains this Thursday (8pm) before visiting the MK Thunder on Saturday for their only action of the weekend.

Schools success for young athletes

Athletics

TWO talented all-rounders showed their potential by taking medals after representing English Schools in the Combined Events International in Glasgow on Saturday.

Josh Olawore earned a narrow victory while Alex Law won silver on the international stage.

Olawore's victory came thanks to a runners-up hurdles spot in 8.24s, fifth place in the shot in 12.25m, third in the 200m with an indoor best of 23.30s and a winning 7.03m long jump effort.

Lining up for the 800m, Olawore was 45 points clear of Wales' David Omoregie, who had earlier set the pace by breaking Colin Jackson's Welsh 60m hurdles record in front of Olawore.

Despite the 800m not being his strongest event Olawore dug deep and was rewarded with a PB of 2m21.06s, which saw him edge home by just nine points with 3559 points ahead of the Welshman's 3550 to win the over-16 event.

Law marked his international debut with a consistent performance in which he was always in the medal hunt in the under-16 competition.

Second place in a new hurdles PB of 8.69s was the perfect start, before a winning long jump of 6.39m put him in front of English Schools' champion Antony Hogg.

Third place in the 200m with an indoor PB of 24.29s and an average shot put of 10.68m saw him take an 18 point lead into the final 800m event but Hogg overhauled him with a new PB to take gold.

Both youngsters added team golds as they helped both the England teams to victory against Wales, Ireland and hosts Scotland.

Dagenham & Redbridge

Daggers draw in cup

A SPECTACULAR equaliser from Jon Nurse on Saturday earned Dagenham & Redbridge a replay at League One's Walsall in the FA Cup Second Round.

The Daggers put aside their poor league form in League Two and played well in the first half despite not making the breakthrough.

So it looked like it might not be their afternoon when the Sadlers took the lead on 75 minutes when Mat Sadler crossed for substitute Claude Gnaka to head past Daggers keeper James Shea.

But the Daggers pushed on and grabbed a deserved equaliser when Nurse produced a turn and shot from 25 yards.

There was still late drama when Walsall were reduced to 10 men as former Orient striker Ryan Jarvis was given his marching orders in stoppage time for elbowing Michael Spillane.

Allardyce rues missed chances as Irons lose out to Burnley

West Ham United

WEST Ham United missed the chance to go top of the Championship after their 2-1 home defeat to Burnley on Saturday.

Kevin Nolan put the Irons ahead on 52 minutes, but Burnley continued their recent good run with Chris McCann equalising five minutes later and Sam Vokes grabbing the winner 15 minutes from time.

With leaders Southampton suffering a surprise 1-0 defeat at lowly Doncast-

He said: "It wasn't complacency. We should have defended better than we did, but we were undone from two crosses into our box. It was just one of those days. We've worked so hard to get in front and then that happens. If you look at it we hit the woodwork a few times and squandered a few chances."

The Hammers were searching for their fifth straight win but it was a slow first half, until the 28th minute when Nolan should have done better from six yards out, but his effort went wide from Carlton Cole's cross.

Matt Taylor, who later limped off with a calf problem, headed over from Julien Faubert's cross.

The Irons converted their pressure into a goal seven minutes into the second half with a simple goal.

Robert Green's long punt forward was flicked on by Cole, and Nolan hooked the ball over Burnley keeper Lee Grant to put West Ham ahead.

The lead did not last however as former Hammer Junior Stanislas sent in a cross which McCann headed in.

West Ham pushed forward to find the winner, and they nearly got it when Nolan cut the ball for Jack Collison but his strike struck the outside of the post, while Cole saw his effort also hit the woodwork.

Wallace could have made it a third for Burnley, but his shot just went wide as his side halted Irons' good run.

Barking drop down while Southend beaten at home

Rugby Union

BARKING'S remain in trouble near the bottom of the table after going down 23-8 at midtable Sedgley Park on Saturday.

Despite going ahead through Chris Ashwin's penalty, the Eastenders went into half-time 13-3 down as tries for Fergus Owen and two penalties and a conversion from Matt Riley put the hosts ahead.

Barking had put in a spirited performance and started the second half well, with Will Nelson going over although the conversion was missed.

However, the Tigers extended their lead with Richard Oxley scoring a try, converted by Riley, who also kicked a further penalty.

Southend suffered a disappointing 14-66 home defeat to high-flying Hartpury College in National Two South.

Southend youngsters started well with Alan Barker touching down and Bradley Burr converting.

But with hard tackling and fast backs, Hartpury had the measure of Southend and raced to a 7-66 lead deep into the second half.

Southend battled on and scored their second try of the afternoon through Harry Hudson, Burr adding the extras.

Westcliff ended a run of four straight defeats with a 35-21 win over fellow strugglers Bracknell in National League Three London & South East.

In London One North, Thurrock remain top thanks to their 61-3 victory over Old Colfeians.

Brentwood lifted themselves up the table due to their 12-19 win at lowly North Walsham, while Rochford Hundred's struggles continued, losing 12-35 to Eton Manor.

Chingford dropped down the table, going down 39-0 at Letchworth Garden City.

Romford & Gidea Park opened up their lead to 11 points in London Two North East after winning 9-52 at Canvey Island, who are now third bottom.

Basildon dropped down to third place behind Enfield Ignatians who beat them 8-7, while Chelmsford lost 43-7 at Hampstead which saw the two swap fourth and fifth places.

Woodford helped their cause in their relegation battle, beating Ipswich 12-21.

Non-League Football

Clarets earn replay

A THIRD round FA Cup tie with Premier-ship's Bolton Wanderers awaits Chelmsford City if they can overcome League Two Macclesfield Town in a replay.

The Clarets nearly pulled off a giantkilling in the second round on Saturday, but were held to a 1-1 draw at the Melbourne Stadium.

Max Cornhill put the Clarets ahead, with a close range effort on 35 minutes after Silkmen keeper Jose Veiga parried Justin Miller's cross.

Tony Diagne blasted home the equaliser on 64 minutes for the Silkmen after a mistake from Clarets keeper Stuart Searle.

The Clarets returned to Blue Square South action on Monday night, beating Maidenhead United 2-0. Michael Bakare and Warren Whitely with the goals.

Redbridge's run in the competition came to an end, losing 5-0 at League Two high-flyers Crawley Town.

The Ryman League Division One North side - who were the lowest ranked team left in the competition - went behind through Matt Tubbs penalty on 31 minutes, which he doubled five minutes later.

The striker got his hat-trick on 79 minutes, again through the penalty spot after Vinnie Durrant saw red for a foul. Andy Drury scored a fourth with Kyle McFadzean completing the scoring late on.

Thurrock manager Robbie Garvey resigned following their 2-1 defeat at home to fellow Blue Square South strugglers Staines Town.

Jamie Guy cancelled out Jake Goodman's opener for Staines, but Adam Everitt scored deep into stoppage time to send Fleet down to the bottom.

Ryman League Premier leaders Billericay Town suffered a 1-0 defeat at Lowestoft Town who closed the gap at the top thanks to Adam Smith's free-kick.

Third place AFC Hornchurch after winning 1-0 at Leatherhead, Martin Tuohy scoring the 90th minute winner.

East Thurrock United remain in trouble in the relegation places, losing to Sam Clayton's lone 62nd-minute goal for visiting Kingstonian.

Aveley took the lead through Sean Bonnett-Johnson in the 67th minute at Hendon. However, Elliott Charles equalised for the Greens six minutes from time.

Concord Rangers remain in trouble near the bottom, losing 2-1 at home to Wealdstone. Britt Assombalonga put Wealdstone ahead on 13 minutes, cancelled out by Tony Stokes on 28 minutes. But the visitors took the three points when Richard Jolly's shot was deflected in by Ryan Tafazolli eight minutes from time.

Danny Heale gave Canvey Island an early lead at Margate, but the Gulls were pegged back through Dean Pooley's 30-yard effort.

Grays Athletic's bad week in Ryman League Division One North continued after being deducted three points for a registration error.

They went down 2-1 to new leaders Enfield Town on Saturday through Jon Moore's 89th minute winner after both sides were reduced to ten men. Anthony Ryan cancelled out Liam Hope's opener.

Brentwood Town held second place Needham Market to a 1-1 draw. Dean Green gave Town a second-minute lead, but Danny Bloomfield scored the equaliser after the break.

Tilbury still hold a play-off place despite a goalless draw at home with Thamesmead Town, while Heybridge Swifts suffered a disappointing 2-1 home defeat to AFC Sudbury.

Bottom club Ilford lost 2-0 at Harlow Town, Michael Deane and Piers Wixon on target.

Ilford are two points behind Ware who drew 1-1 at Waltham Forest. Danny Johnson gave the visitors the lead, but Kayan Kalipha levelled for Forest on 84 minutes.

Paul Clayton's 70th minute goal gave Romford a 1-0 win over Great Wakering Rovers. Maldon & Tiptree won at Soham Town Rangers, Leon Antoine netting at the death.
